

Floretta M. Underwood

During her 60 year career, Flo has worked in various fields including insurance, retail, banking, legal, accounting and the military.

She started with London Witte & Company, LLP in 1970 and then retired to South Carolina in 1993. Flo returned to Indianapolis in 2003 and returned part-time to London Witte in 2007.

Flo attends Chapel Rock Christian Church and is active with their “His Eyes Program” which involves reading to the elderly in an assisted living environment.

Having a large family has allowed her to experience and enjoy many sporting events. Her true love is music and her favorite is classical piano music.
